Local and General.

J. B. Taylor, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is now convalescent.

Aunger & Shute, dental parlors, upstairs over Morris & Taylor's hardware store.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gilmour returned Monday from Ontario, where they have been for several months past.

A special Easter song service will be held in connection with the evening service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday next.

Percy Talbot returned home on Friday from Chicago, where he has been for the past six months attending veterinary college.

F. B. Watson and wife went to Wetaskiwin on Saturday, where Mr. Watson has accepted a position with the Alberta Pacific Elevator Co.

For the Easter holidays the Canadian Pacific Railway Company announce a rate of fare and one third for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale April 8th to April 12th, inclusive, good to return until April 13th.

The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition will be conducted on the "dry" principle. No liquor or intoxicating beverages of any description will be sold on the grounds, or be allowed on sale within two miles of the exposition.

Even the bars seem to have become inoculated with the prevailing contagion. Wednesday morning the following sign was conspicuously in evidence on a bar window: "Beer 2 for 5 cents, for 10 days only." The sign is said to have disappeared quickly, however, when the proprietor discovered it.

A highly meritorious concert recital was given in the opera house last Friday evening by Miss Ethel Webster, A. T. C. M., soprano, of the Royal College, London, England; Miss Jennie Lerouge, pianist, of the Lille Conservatory, France; and Mr. F. Darimont, violinist, gold medalist of Brussels Conservatory, Belgium. This was Miss Webster's first appearance in Lacombe since her return from London, and her full rich voice was a surprise to her friends here.

Applications for trees for planting this spring are still being received by the Dominion Experimental Farm, Lacombe. The varieties available are the Box Elder or Manitoba Maple and the Caragana or Siberian Pea Tree. Either of these are sent by mail in lots of 100 to each applicant free of charge. Either variety may be used to form a windbreak, but the latter may if desired be kept as a hedge. It is hoped that advantage will be taken of this opportunity to secure trees which, when grown will increase the value of every holding where planted.

TOWN COUNCIL MEETING.

Council met in regular session Tuesday evening. Members all present. Minutes of last regular meeting read and approved.

Several communications were read and disposed of. A number of accounts were presented and referred to the finance committee.

The finance committee reported, recommending that accounts to the amount of about $200 be paid. Report adopted.

The licensing bylaw came up for a second reading and discussion. Laid over for further discussion. There was some diversity of opinion as to amount of license fee to be charged under the different sections of the bylaw.

A committee from the Fire Brigade waited on the council re accident insurance for the firemen, under the Alberta Compensation Act. Motion that the town insure all active members of the Brigade for $2,000, the details being left in the hands of the fire water and light committee, carried.

Councillor Kent inquired if the health committee was cognizant of the unsanitary condition of some of the lanes of the town. This inquiry brought on a general discussion of the prevalent practice of making the lanes a dumping place for manure, slops and refuse of all kinds.

Councillor Mobley suggested if it was the council's wish that the public works committee go ahead and fill the dry well at the Merchants bank corner. The council passed a resolution instructing the committee to have the well filled.

Moved by Hootson seconded by Mobley that the public works committee be empowered to have a split log drag constructed for use on the streets. Motion carried. It seemed to be the opinion of several councillors that the now famous Murphy "go-devil" should be dismantled to get the iron for use on the new drag.

Sensational Moosejaw Murder.

Moosejaw, Sask., April 5.—Mrs. A. J. Kent, wife of a prominent city merchant, died suddenly on Saturday evening. Today sensational circumstances developed which render a coroner's inquest necessary. The deceased woman visited friends on Saturday evening, where she expired suddenly after appearing in the best of health. It now appears that during Saturday afternoon a parcel containing medicine was left at the Kent home. About 6 o'clock Mrs. Kent was called on the phone by a party who mentioned having sent medicine over. After eating supper she partook of a considerable quantity of the medicine, which has since turned out to be gopher poison. It did not commence to act until later in the evening, when the unfortunate woman was at her friend's home where, after a violent spasm, she succumbed. It has been learned that the party who called over the phone was a woman speaking from the C. P. R. station. An effort is being made to discover the identity

Fire Destroys City of Fort Worth

Dallas, Texas, April 5.—A bulletin from Fort Worth says that more than twenty blocks were destroyed by fire, the loss being fully two million.

The fire has reached the Union depot, and it looks as if as much more damage will be done. There are no indications of controlling the flames.

The annual meeting of the Epworth League will be held in Seattle during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, and the event will bring more than 25,000 visitors to the Puget Sound country.

Graft Charges Proved.

Ottawa, March 30.—An order in council taking action on the recommendation of Hon. L. P. Brodeur, on the report of Judge Cassels, who conducted the inquiry into the department of marine and fisheries, was tabled in the house today. Lieut. Col. Gordeau, deputy minister, is retired with superannuation. Commander Spain, wreck commissioner, is dismissed. J. F. Fraser, commissioner of lights, dismissed; J. W. Gregory, agent at Quebec, dismissed. F. J. Harding, agent at St. John, N. B., retired with superannuation. George D. O'Farrell, inspector of lights, Quebec, dismissed. C. Thomson Schmidt, inspector of government steamers, is dismissed. John Kelly, inspector of fog alarms Quebec, reinstated. Captain Charles Koenig dismissed. Captain McDough, temporary suspension and reinstatement; Paul Bolduc, engineer C. G. S. Druid; Theriault, engineer C. G. S. Champlain; A. Roy, engineer cruiser Princess; Joseph Belanger, chief engineer of the lightship Anticosti; Joseph Fontaine, chief engineer C. G. S. Montcalm; Malcolm Morris, engineer cruiser Curlew; H. H. Stewart, chief engineer of the C. G. S. Aberdeen; J. Ferguson, chief engineer C. G. S. Minto; A. Sampson, chief engineer dredge No. 8; Eugene Belanger, chief engineer C. G. S. Christine; A. Deitch, second engineer of the Aberdeen; E. Filteau, machinist of the Quebec agency, suspension confirmed and their future employment in the department terminated.

As to Commander Spain, wreck commissioner, the order in council sets forth: "That a statement was made against this officer by the auditor general to the effect that he had been charging accounts for travelling and other expenses to which he was not entitled; Commissioner Cassels states in his report that Commander Spain was allowed the fullest latitude of explanation, but that no satisfactory explanation of his action was forthcoming, and that it is therefore impossible for him to absolve Commander Spain of the charges brought against him."

J. F. Fraser, commissioner of lights, is thus dealt with: "That Mr. Fraser was suspended on March 31, 1908, and has been under suspension since that date. That the commissioner finds that Mr. Fraser made certain purchases in direct disobedience to orders of the minister of marine and fisheries."

Opposition Demand Full Inquiry.

Ottawa, April 1.—The government sat tight on the lid of the departments today and fought bitterly an attempt of the opposition to have a further investigation into all the great spending departments along the lines of the marine department of inquiry. The debate on the subject was carried on until after midnight when it was adjourned by Arthur Meighen, of Portage la Prairie, until tomorrow.

The opposition pointed out that there was every reason to believe that the inefficient and corrupt state of affairs which had been found in the marine and fisheries existed in the other departments.

The resolution calling for the investigation was introduced by ex-Judge Doherty, the new member for St. Annes, Montreal, and he made a strong plea for an impartial inquiry. The Cassels commission report had resulted in a cleaning up in the department of marine and fisheries, and in the establishment of better business methods and a similar inquiry in the other departments would, he contended, be equally in the public interest.

"Why," asked Mr. Doherty, "do the ministers of the other departments refuse to take off the lid? Are they afraid of the light? It looks like it."

Again the new members of the opposition showed their ability as debaters. T. W. Crowthers, of East Elgin, made one of the ablest speeches heard in the House this session. It was a powerful indictment of the government and he built up an unassailable argument for a further investigation.

"If there is a lack of conscience at the foot," he exclaimed in closing, "the cause may be found in the head."

Hon. L. P. Brodeur made the chief defence for the government and claimed that he was sincerely trying to reform his department. He pointed out that he had abolished the patronage list and established a purchasing agent. His only reason for refusing an inquiry into the other departments was that there was no proof of wrongdoing and until there was, there was no justification for an investigation.

The debate did not close until nearly 2 o'clock in the morning. The government forces were rallied to the support of the cabinet ministers and the resolution voted down by a straight party vote.

Wild Scene in House of Commons.

Ottawa, April 2.—Arthur Meighen resumed the debate on Doherty's motion this afternoon in the house, declaring the civil service commission report a sweeping indictment of the government, and that the Cassels commission did not clear the skirts of the minister of marine. The Cassels report had roused the ministers to end the patronage system and there was no reason to refuse inquiry into all branches of the public service.

A. K. MacLean, Lunenburg, replied referring to the remark by Mr. Meighen, that MacLean was the only member of the house to reflect on the Cassels report. He said both reports were open to criticism, although it did not follow that he wished to impeach the motives of anyone. Declaring the civil service commission careless in making charges without justification, MacLean said it was the report of three fussy old men, who were anxious to make a sensational report. MacLean concluded Doherty's resolution was illogical in assuming that because there had been wrongdoing in one department, there was necessarily a

3,000 Facts About Canada.

The public will welcome the 1909 revised edition of this valuable booklet, which has been happily described as a tabloid encyclopedia of Canada. It is unique and clever in its arrangement and worked out by its compiler, Mr. Frank Yeigh, of Toronto, the well known writer and lecturer. 30,000 copies have already been sold. The resources, wealth and business of the country are given in a concrete form—a fact in a sentence. Mr. Hemer Greenwood, M. P. for York, Eng., says: "It is an eye-opener to even a keen Canadian like myself." A copy may be had for 25 cents from the Canadian Facts Publishing Co., 667 Spadina Ave., Toronto.

Food for Thought.

"World Wide" is a publication that will not interest the ignorant or the people who do not want to think, but those who wish to keep in touch with great thinkers of the time in Great Britain and the United States will find it both valuable and extremely entertaining. "World Wide" is unique. It is the only Canadian paper of its kind and the only paper of its kind in the world, to our knowledge, that gives such a wealth of strong and suggestive writing on every subject for so small a subscription price. The peculiar mission of "World Wide" seems to be that of turning the full tide of British and American thought into a Canadian channel at a price which puts it within the reach of everyone. "World Wide" has no axe to grind and is free alike from partisanship and faddishness. The following opinions may be taken as representing the opinion of all "World Wide" readers who are wont to speak most highly about their favorite review.

"World Wide" is a very interesting and instructive paper, and its selections have been made with excellent judgment."—H. J. Cundell, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

"I have found 'World Wide' both interesting and instructive, the articles and cartoons judiciously selected."—Judge C. O. Brunsinger, Judge Chambers, St. Thomas, Ont.

"I have taken 'World Wide' ever since its publication, and I consider it not only the best eclectic at the price, but the equal of any and the superior of most. It is a great boon to a busy man."—Rev. E. Frigson, Laxvold, N. S.

"World Wide" is invaluable to business men and others as a means of keeping in touch with current thoughts and events the world over."—Mr. H. H. Loosmore, Standard Bank, Parkhill, Ont.

"I have taken 'World Wide' for six years and I consider it excellent. I look forward with pleasure to its weekly arrival, and always find it most interesting."—W. C. B. Manson, Grimsby, Ont.

"I have no hesitation in expressing my unqualified satisfaction with 'World Wide'. The articles are selected with care and discrimination."—Rev. A. A. Von Hilted, Bergerville, Que.

"World Wide" is issued every week at five cents at all the leading bookstores, or at $1.50 a year, mailed to any part of the world, by John Dougal & Son, Wilson Block, Montreal.

CANADA'S BEST NEWSPAPER.

"A Kind of Witness" among the Press of Canada have nothing but Praise for the Montreal "Witness."

To what other large metropolitan newspaper anywhere in Canada, has such whole-hearted and generous praise ever been accorded as may be found in the following examples of what is being said by press and people all over the Dominion?

"The 'Witness' is a newspaper of which Canadians are justly proud. It publishes all the news in the most straightforward way and its readers are kept well informed. Moreover its readers are leaders in their respective communities, the 'Witness' appealing strongly to the people of character everywhere."

The following statements of fact are worthy the consideration of anyone of our readers.

"The 'Witness' exerts a most beneficial influence in the homes and hearts of our people."—The Late Archbishop Bond, Primate of all Canada.

"The 'Witness' has manifested an eminent degree of the qualities of courage and honesty."—R. L. Borden, Leader of the Conservative party.

"The Montreal 'Witness' is never influenced by mere party feelings."—Chatham Commercial.

"The Montreal 'Witness' numbers among its clientele the most independent and thoughtful newspaper readers in Canada."—Edmonton Bulletin.

"The Montreal 'Witness' stands for purity and honesty in government."—The Hamilton Spectator.

"The Montreal 'Witness' is a newspaper which is bold enough to be honest, and honest enough to be bold."—Sarnia (Ont.) Observer.

"The Montreal 'Witness' was never better or more useful than it is today."—Dominion Presbyterian.

"The 'Witness' is one of the best papers published."—Bowmanville Statesman.

"The 'Witness' never fails to command respect for its fairness and impartiality."—Sarnia Herald.

"The 'Witness' is the most impartial and independent newspaper in Canada."—Charlotte, P. E. I. District.

"The Montreal 'Witness' does nothing small."—Picton Gazette.

"The Montreal 'Witness' is by far the most influential newspaper in Canada."—The Herald, Corner, Ont.

"The 'Witness' is no doubt the best newspaper in Canada."—Northern Advertiser.

"The 'Witness' deserves the good words that have been said of it."—Christian Guardian.

Right minded people will appreciate such opinions and will pass them to friends who may not have seen them.

The Daily edition is $3.00 a year and the Weekly only $1.00. These rates are low, since it costs much more to produce a paper like the 'Witness' than it does to produce many of its leading competitors. Character counts because it costs.

The 'Witness' is published by John Dougal & Son, Montreal, and has now completed its sixty-second year.

BROILING MEAT & TOASTING BREAD

One way produces evenly broiled meat and evenly toasted bread without taxing the patience of the housewife. This way is represented by "Sask-alta" Range. The reason: "Sask-alta" Range has an Automatic Lift Top (Patented) in addition to regular Broiler Door; and this team works for the operator instead of making her work.

The "Sask-alta" Way

Another way produces unevenly broiled meat and unevenly toasted bread and taxes the patience of the housewife. This way is represented by most Ranges. The reason: Some Ranges have "only" a Broiler Door, others have a contrivance like that illustrated in top small drawing; both of which enjoy the distinction of tiring the arm that holds the broiler and tiring the eye that directs the arm.

means range perfection.

FOR years the name "GURNEY-OXFORD" has stood for the highest development in cooking ranges. No matter what conditions the range must meet, no matter what price you wish to pay, you will get more range efficiency for your money in the "Gurney-Oxford" lines than in any other that's built.

All our years of experience and our store of range knowledge is put into this, one of our latest productions—is built of dead flat, patent levelled steel and lined with asbestos—the kind that stands all kinds of heat and never warps or cracks.

It's supplied with the new Gurney-Oxford reversible grate, too. The grate with the interlocking teeth that cut off the dead ashes when operated, and makes the fire respond quickly. No good coal drops through it either, every particle is burnt. That is one of this range's fuel-saving features.

This grate can be removed and a wood-burning grate substituted without moving a bolt or a screw.

Then, notice the extra large oven—splendid for baking day. And the drop door forms a solid shelf for baking.

The fire linings can be removed without disturbing the top—that means economical repairs.

The Gurney-Oxford Golden Nugget Range is a low-price range with high-price efficiency. We would like to explain it to you in detail.

We know that once you have seen it you won't be satisfied until you have this labor-saving, fuel-saving range in your kitchen.

JUST CURED HIM THAT WAS ALL

WHAT DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS DID FOR THOMAS MOON.

Doctors Could Not Cure Him Dropped but Dodd's Kidney Pills Cleared It Out Completely. (Special.) "I cured me completely. That's what Dodd's Kidney Pills did for me." Such is the statement made by Thomas Moon, a well-known resident of this place who for two years suffered with Dropsical swellings brought on by diseased kidneys.

"I had pains in the small of my back," Mr. Moon continues, "and across the loins. The swelling commenced first in my legs and gradually got to my body. I tried different doctors but kept getting worse every day until I was swollen up to an awful size."

"One doctor sent me to the hospital where I got a little benefit but the swelling soon all came back. Then I used Dodd's Kidney Pills and as I said before they cured me completely."

Dropsical swellings are caused by diseased kidneys failing to take the surplus water out of the blood. Cure the kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills and the Dropsy naturally cures itself.

Mrs. T. Osborn, Norton Mills, Vt., says—"I have no hesitation in saying that Shiloh's Cure saved my baby's life. I was so weak and sickly that he took no notice of anything, and cried so much that I was worn out caring for him. After giving him the Tablets there was a great change, and he is now a bright-eyed, laughing baby. ## SLOAN'S NOMINATION.

"Bill's" Opponent Backed Down After Near-Running Wait.

In Mr. William Sloan, familiarly known as "Bill Sloan," who resigned his seat in the Commons to give a seat to Hon. Wm. Brown, of the House of Commons, has lost one of its greatest physical, not political and a highly popular candidate for the House of Commons. Sloan is a native of the province of Ontario, and has been a member of the Commons for several years. As a prospector, miner, and lumberman, he has reached it with the best, and is a man of great experience. But, as he himself says, none of his work experiences was half so exciting as an incident which occurred during the last election.

Comox-Alton is one of the largest, if not the largest, constituency in the Dominion, having in it several times greater than New Brunswick, while the facilities for traveling are by no means the best. Sloan, therefore, is both an arduous and expensive business. Before the elections Sloan, having no opponent, was elected. He was the only one who would be saved the trouble and expense of a contest, but in this he was disappointed.

As the campaign progressed, however, Bill's opponent began to lose courage and when nomination day arrived the story got wind that he was a quitter.

Both candidates were present at the nomination meeting, and the excitement was intense. It became known that the Conservative candidate had his nomination papers in his pocket, but that he was of two minds as to putting them in. Sloan, on the other hand, was of one mind. He dragged along and still he made no move. Occasionally, when an ex-candidate, Sloan would look into his pocket where the papers lay, and then the Liberals trembled. It was, Bill put it, as if the Democrats were held over his head.

The climax came within a few minutes of the hour fixed for the closing of nominations. The Conservative was still waiting and watching. Bill Sloan sat with his watch in his hand, counting the seconds as they passed. Suddenly the tension was broken by a shout.

"A thousand dollars that Bill Sloan is elected by acclamation!"

It came from a miner who, unable to restrain his enthusiasm, was prepared to back the favorite with three minutes to the closing hour.

There was a momentary pause around that room for a few moments, while the ex-candidate miner was roughly ejected from the body turned to the Conservative candidate expecting to see him close with the result. Sloan, however, was not to be so easily won. He had his hand on his pocket, and then he sat down. The struggle went on for a minute later Bill Sloan was declared elected by acclamation.

"I never knew such a close shave all my life," he says.

A. Mushroom Town.

The triple phrase of towns "growing overnight" is scarcely hyperbole so far as the new places along the Grand Trunk Pacific line are concerned. The manner in which they have been springing up is perfectly astonishing. One month after the line was opened a month later the traveler finds an energetic and busy little town, with Board of Trade, and possibly a public agency, and everything that goes to make up an embryo city. Rivers, Melville, Watrous and other little new places are already getting underway and busy.

One of the most ambitious and most promising of these new towns is Watrous. It was in July the first house was built. Now it is incorporated, with a population of 400. The residential part of the town is 100 houses, while there are stores, banks, two hotels, etc.

Watrous is the third divisional point on the G.T.P., is 400 miles from Winnipeg and 600 miles from Edmonton. It is a fine lake is traditional amongst the Indians for its curative powers. It has been used by the Indians for centuries.

Canadian and American analysts, who have pronounced it to contain splendid medicinal value, are of the opinion that it is a splendid place for bathing. There are many stories told of the cures which have been effected.

School Hard on Children.

Dr. Seward of the Toronto Health Department is a believer in short school hours for children. In a recent address he said that it was a mistake to let children go to school hours, or worry their tired brains with home work. They should not be required to read in the morning before 9.45, the recess should be twice as long as at present.

He pointed out that the school day is a sample time for a leisurely dinner. There should be several weeks' vacation. There should be no school in the summer. For children under 14 years of age their physical well-being is of greater importance than their literary culture.

Beats Canadian Record.

Mr. C. H. Chas. is well known in connection with Mexican Light, Heat & Power affairs, when he was leader of the Conservative Opposition in the Nova Scotia House of Assembly, when the H. M. Whitney coal legislation was for discussion made a speech which, for length, was generally thought to have won the Canadian record.

A case just finished in London, England, however beats all records, as for length speeches are concerned, for an address lasting nine days, was delivered. The speaker was Mr. Rufus Isaac in the case of Walter et al. vs. Lewis et al.

ONLY THING THAT HELPED HIS KIDNEYS

British Columbia Likes Gin Pills.

It divides the year about equally working on this ranch and on the other, claiming, being consequently entirely dependent on healthy kidneys for a living. At times I have suffered like the others in this country from backache and kidney troubles, sometimes to the extent of being laid up for weeks together. Having tried many remedies I have arrived in stating that your Gin Pills are the only one from which I have derived any permanent benefit. I had been using them only a short time when the trouble left me and has not returned since.

So Was Mother.

Even if there had not been kernels of love in her hat and a glad light of love in her eye, any bachelor could have told that she was the wife of a man.

And the manner in which she spoke to her husband showed they had not been married long. In the presence of a third person, the couple rushed over to meet the bride.

"Well, well, Agnes," he cried, extending his hand, "you don't mean to say that you're married?"

"Why—why, yes," the girl stammered, while her cheeks as she tried to defend her novel situation. "You—you know, it runs in the family. Mother was married, too."

It is a wise to prevent disorder—Many causes lead to disorder of the stomach and few are from them. At the first manifestation that the stomach and liver are not performing their functions, a course of Parmed's Vegetable Pills should be tried, and it will be found that the digestive organs will speedily resume healthy action. Laxatives and sedatives are so common, and their use is so general, that it is surprising how little preparation could be so effective as they.

"Your collection of water-colors—'but very nice,' said the Swellman, 'but you have no oil paintings?' "No, indeed," replied Mrs. Nurlich. "I don't care for them. I like water-colors. 'No, no, in case of fire, you know.'"

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "have a way of leaving their consciences quiet by taking de minister's advice on Sunday and de lawyer's advice all the rest of de week."—Washington Star.

Another Victim.

"Kind lady," says the frazzled and frazzled gentleman who has rapped timidly on the back door, "could you give me a little something for a poor earthquake sufferer?"

"What earthquake are you suffering from?" skeptically inquires the kind lady.

"The one in Sicily, madam."

"In Sicily! Nonsense! You couldn't have reached here since that happened."

"It was here when it happened, madam; but, you see, a lot of people who might have been exposed to a little earthquake here have sent all their money to the relief fund, and that lets me out."—Chicago Post.

The Uses of Bile in Indigestion.

Bile is quite as important as the gastric juices in the process of digestion, and is one of the most important of the body's secretions.

Chronic indigestion disappears when an active liver supplies bile in sufficient quantities.

You think of bile as something disagreeable and poisonous, something to be well rid of. In the blood the liver takes the bile out of the blood and pours it into the intestines, where it fulfils a most important function.

Without bile human life is short, for bile hastens the passage of the food along the alimentary canal.

Bile nourishes the acid which passes from the stomach to the intestines. It prevents the fermentation of food in the intestines, which in turn causes gas, wind, flatulency.

Bile, in short, is Nature's cathartic and maintains a regular and healthful process of digestion and of elimination of waste matter by way of the bowels.

But to have a regular flow of bile the liver must be kept healthy and active and just here is where Dr. A. W. Chase's Kid-Liver Pills come in, for they are delicate, specific and set in their action on the liver.

It is only by setting the liver right that constipation can ever be cured. It is only by making the liver healthy that biliousness and bilious headaches can be thoroughly overcome. It is only by making the liver active that the most difficult cases of indigestion and dyspepsia will ever vanish.

A single box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kid-Liver Pills at 25c. a box will convince you of their extraordinary merit. One pill a dose, at all druggists, or Edman's, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Alleged Sunday Desecration.

Pugh vs. Urquhart.

This action was brought under the Masters and Servants Ordinance, by the plaintiff against the defendant a prominent merchant of this place, for non-payment of wages, Mr. C. C. Switzer, J. P., on the bench presiding, and more than ordinary interest attaches to the case.

According to the plaintiff's evidence it appears that he began work for the defendant on Friday April 2nd, and continued in the performance of his duties during that day and on the following Saturday, no complaints having been made in the meantime as to the manner in which he had acquitted himself. On Saturday night, however, he was requested by the defendant's manager to be on hand on the following Sunday morning as defendant was then very busy getting ready for a big discount sale for cash on the following week. Plaintiff agreed to do this, but later, he it said to his credit, thought better of it, and did not report until Monday morning, whereupon the defendant promptly dismissed him and offered to pay plaintiff for the time he had already worked, and that he the defendant said he thought he was perfectly justified in dismissing him under the circumstances.

The defendant, on the other hand, set up the plea that the plaintiff was "no good," but failed to define whether he was "no good" by reason of his refusal to profane Sunday and thereby break the law of the land, or how.

The court assessed the defendant $3.00 for wages, and costs.

J. I. Poole conducted the case for the plaintiff, R. C. Murphy for the defendant.

Wild Scene in House of Commons.

similar state in the other departments.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster reproved MacLean for describing the premier's appointees to the commission as fussy old gentlemen. Continuing, Mr. Foster declared that but for an accident there would have been no Cassels commission. The premier had claimed at Welland that the government had suspicions that all was not right in the department and they appointed a commission which confirmed the suspicion and they then appointed another commission. The real facts were that Sir Wilfrid had refused every resolution and that the plea was advanced by the opposition and would not allow a commission to enquire into any department. Eventually, a civil service deputation seeking increases in salaries secured from the premier a commission to enquire into the salary question. This commission made charges against the departments and as a result the ministers said they had gone into matters which they had no business to; but the country pricked up its ears and the government had to go on. Drawing attention to the fact that two Liberals had been chosen as assistants to Judge Cassels instead of a Liberal and a Conservative, Mr. Foster said the government claimed to have abolished patronage. What a feat for the fussy old gentlemen if they had got inside the interior department on the scent of Burrows and others who had grown rich at the country's expense.

Addressing himself to the premier particularly, Mr. Foster said that Dr. Olet Holliday and others had received the people's money. "Do you propose to get it back? Why do you not prosecute? Is it because you share proceeds?" [Cries order.]

Mr. Foster continued: "And is it because you share for party advantages, you, who are the trustees of the people?"

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, extending his compliments to Doherty on his manner of handling the subject, regretted that he could not extend congratulations to Mr. Foster. The premier after referring casually to Foster's concluding questions, said he never during his prolonged life heard a man "suggest to me that I had profited by the people's money."

Proceeding, the premier said no man was so ready to make insinuations and no man will win and whine so much when he receives a return blow as the hon. member.

The premier said: "I have never manipulated other people's money or dabbled in trust funds."

Hon. Mr. Foster, who had already asked permission to ask a question which was refused, here rose to a point of order, saying the house rules forbade the member saying offensive things of another [Liberal] and complained that the premier had put into his mouth things he, [Foster] never said, "and in anger refuses to allow me to correct him."

Then occurred a scene of party passion and tumult such as the house has not seen for years and only with difficulty did the speaker secure sufficient decorum to allow the proceedings to continue. Foster amid interruptions complained of the premier preferring to use a false argument and insinuating that he [Foster] had manipulated trust funds. This, Foster denied, and challenged the members to repeat any such statement on the platform. Foster, during the storm, insisted on a retraction of the insinuation when the premier endeavored to resume, and the government members, among whom Conmee was conspicuous, fired cross questions at the member for North Toronto, whom the Conservatives cheered.

At this juncture, R. L. Borden intervened, appealing for reason. He hoped the premier would make himself clear.

The premier, prefacing a fresh start with the statement that he had sat for many years on both the opposition and the government benches during which time he had always tried to carry on debates fairly and politely, continued, "but sir, I am human after all and when told to my face that if I did not prosecute certain parties, it is because I am afraid of the circumstances." Conservatives: "He did not say that."

The premier asked what did he mean.

Foster attempted to explain that he did not mean to impute personal responsibility to the premier.

Conmee interjected: "You repeated it."

Taylor, Conservative: "Keep your bull dogs quiet over there." Conmee retorted: "You just keep quiet, we know all about your little firebrand."

Foster complained to the speaker that Conmee was insulting him across the floor and continued that he had meant the contributions were for the benefit of the party.

Sir Wilfrid continuing, said he refused to accept such a retraction as that he had put money into party interests instead of his own pockets. He said he had never manipulated any trust funds and had never touched any other people's money; politically or otherwise. "I am too old a parliamentarian to indulge in such language as he used this afternoon. I never court a fight, but I am not afraid to fight," said the premier.

Foster again raised a point of order on rule 19, prohibiting members from saying anything disagreeable or offensive to another. Here ensued another stormy intermission. Foster appealed to the chairman. Sir Wilfrid also rose and said he had told the hon. gentleman that he would not tolerate being insulted in this house, and the member's reply is to become still more offensive." The speaker endeavored to throw oil on the troubled waters, by suggesting that neither Mr. Foster nor the premier meant to be personal and that aspect being removed, the debate had better proceed.

Mr. Foster objected to the ruling and he and the premier addressed the chair until the speaker ruled that the premier had the floor, but Foster still demanded a retraction. The speaker, he said, had ruled words did not apply to him [Foster], but to whom else could they apply, and insisted that they were addressed to him.

The opposition leader again intervened, appealing for a ruling that the premier's language was unjustified. Finally, amidst tumultuous Liberal applause, Sir Wilfrid said he would not have spoken as he did but for the provocation, but he did not apply the words to Mr. Foster and he placed himself in the speaker's ruling. The speaker's ruling was that while the offensive words could not be used in debate, they were not extensive if not applied personally.

But still the battle raged till after 3 o'clock in the morning when the house divided and the motion was defeated by the usual party majority.

Oxford Wins Boat Race.

Putney, England, April 3.—In one of the most exciting contests in the history of the famous inter-varsity boat race, Oxford won from Cambridge today by three lengths and a half in 19 minutes and 50 seconds. Had the Oxonians been pressed at the finish their time would have been much faster. As far as Barnes Bridge it was anybody's race, but from thence the weight and strength of the dark blues began to tell.

At the start Oxford stroked 39 to the light blues 38. Cambridge overhauled Oxford's lead of a nose and at Hammersmith Bridge the crews were on even terms. Bourne's longer 35 a minute stroke began to gain on Stuart's 36, and from here the Oxonians drew ahead again until a spectator's boat got in the way. The Oxford's answered to let Cambridge pull level again, but at Chiswick the dark blues again poked the nose of their boat into the lead. Stuart, by a spurt, pulled level again at Thorny Croft.

The excitement was then terrific along the shore.

Passing Barnes the boats were even, but from here on the Oxford crew began to show superiority, and at Barnes Bridge daylight showed between them. The light blues now showed unmistakable signs of weakening, but gamely struggled to pull on their rivals. The Oxonians, however, came right away, and were never headed.

The time this year is slower than last, which was 19 minutes and 19 seconds.

Cambridge was a two to one favorite. The victory for Oxford is the first in four years, and was accomplished after a splendid race. Cambridge led at the start but was soon overtaken. The time was one minute and three seconds below the record of 1900.

Stomach Distress.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50 cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take one triangle after supper to-night. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50 cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of dyspepsia or indigestion,

Lacombe at the Stock Show.

Lacombe district breeders, as always, have carried off a large per cent of the prizes on cattle at the big provincial show at Calgary this week. In numerous classes every prize awarded comes to Lacombe district.

In Hereford Championships, P. F. Huntley won the Alberta championship and also the open championship for best bull. Mr. Huntley also won the championship for best beef animal of any age or grade.

Among other Lacombe district breeders who landed a goodly number of prizes we note P. Talbot & Son, Thos Talbot, H. Talbot, John Ramsay, A. F. McGill, Jas. Sharp, J. L. Walters, W. Sharp, W. E. Tees, O. Palmer, P. M. Ballantyne.

Lacombe stock also appeared prominently among the winners in the sheep and swine departments.

Easy to Mix This.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.
